General Health and Safety management

Potable water was freely available in all areas and test certificates were up-to-date.

Sufficient clean toilets segregated by gender were available at all times to workers.

Ventilation, temperature and lighting were adequate for the production processes.

Health certificates for kitchen operators and the hygiene certificate for the kitchen was up-to-date and legal.

There were enough first-aid certified employees.

The fire and evacuation drills were performed in 24.11.2021

Risk assessment was observed.

Emergency case plans were provided inside the facility.

Minutes of meetings show that there are meetings once every month between the H&S committee (workers) and the H&S manager, and each point is acted on.

Fire Safety

There were at least 2 exits from each work area and these were clearly marked.

Firefighting equipment are adequate but checks weren't up-to-date.

Fire drills were organised and recorded.

Electrical safety

All electrical equipment was maintained in good condition such as sockets, plugs, switches and main fuse boards.

Chemical safety

All chemicals were correctly labelled.

Workers had been trained on chemical procedures as well as what to do in an emergency.

6: Working Hours are not Excessive

(Click here to return to summary of findings) (Click here to return to Key Information)

ETI

6.1 Working hours must comply with national laws, collective agreements, and the provisions of 6.2 to 6.6 below, whichever affords the greater protection for workers. Sub–clauses 6.2 to 6.6 are based on international labour standards.

6.2 Working hours, excluding overtime, shall be defined by contract, and shall not exceed 48 hours per week.

6.3 All overtime shall be voluntary. Overtime shall be used responsibly, taking into account all the following: the extent, frequency and hours worked by individual workers and the workforce as a whole. It shall not be used to replace regular employment. Overtime shall always be compensated at a premium rate, which is recommended to be not less than 125% of the regular rate of pay.

6.4 The total hours worked in any 7-day period shall not exceed 60 hours, except where covered by clause 6.5 below.

6.5 Working hours may exceed 60 hours in any 7-day period only in exceptional circumstances where all of the following are met:

- this is allowed by national law;

- this is allowed by a collective agreement freely negotiated with a workers' organisation representing a significant portion of the workforce;

- appropriate safeguards are taken to protect the workers' health and safety; and

- The employer can demonstrate that exceptional circumstances apply such as unexpected production peaks, accidents or emergencies.

6.6 Workers shall be provided with at least one day off in every 7-day period or, where allowed by national law, 2 days off in every 14-day period.

7: No Discrimination is Practiced

(Click here to return to summary of findings)

ETI

7.1 There is no discrimination in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination or retirement based on race, caste, national origin, religion, age, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, union membership or political affiliation.

Current Systems and Evidence Examined

To complete 'current systems' Auditors examine policies and written procedures in conjunction with relevant managers, to understand, and record what controls and processes are currently in place e.g. record what policies are in place, what relevant procedures are carried out, who is/are responsible for the management of this item of the code. Evidence checked should detail any documentary or verbal evidence shown to support the systems.

Current systems:

There was no discrimination in hiring, compensation, access to training, promotion, termination or retirement based on race, caste, national origin, religion, age, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, union membership or political affiliation. During the audit, management stated that practising no discrimination is an important company rule in every aspect of employment. It was verified through worker interviews that there is no discrimination practised.

8: Regular Employment Is Provided

(Click here to return to summary of findings) (Click here to return to Key Information)

ETI

8.1 To every extent possible work performed must be on the basis of recognised employment relationship established through national law and practice.

8.2 Obligations to employees under labour or social security laws and regulations arising from the regular employment relationship shall not be avoided through the use of labour–only contracting, sub– contracting, or home-working arrangements, or through apprenticeship schemes where there is no real intent to impart skills or provide regular employment, nor shall any such obligations be avoided through the excessive use of fixed-term contracts of employment.

Additional Elements: Responsible Recruitment

8.3 Suppliers have full understanding of the entire recruitment process and assess all labour recruiters and intermediaries against legal and/or ethical requirements.

8.4 There are effective management systems in place to identify and monitor the hiring and management of all migrant workers, contract workers, agency workers, temporary or casual labour The supplier shall implement processes to enable adequate control over agencies with regards the above points and related legislation.

8.5 Employment agencies must only supply workers registered with them.

8.6 Workers pay no recruitment fee at any stage of the recruitment process.

8.7 Worker contracts accurately reflect the agreed payment and terms in the recruitment process and are understood and signed by workers.
